After consultations within the Advisory Committee as provided for by the above Decision,

Whereas :

(1) In June 1990 the Commission received a complaint lodged by the European Confederation of Iron and steel industries (Eurofer) on behalf of producers whose collective output allegedly constituted a large proportion ($\pm 75\%$) of Community production of the product concerned. The complaint contained evidence of dumping and of material injury resulting therefrom, which was considered sufficient to justify the initiation of a proceeding. The Commission accordingly announced, by a notice published in the Official Journal of the European Communities⁽²⁾, the initiation of an anti-dumping proceeding concerning imports into the Community of bars and rods, hot-rolled in irregularly wound coils (also known as wire-rod) of iron or non-alloy steel, used mainly in building work, falling within CN codes 7213 31 00 and 7213 39 00, originating in Argentina, Egypt, Trinidad and Tobago, Turkey and the former Yugoslavia.

(2) The investigation of dumping covered the period from 1 January to 30 September 1990.

(3) The Commission officially so advised the exporting producers and importers known to be concerned, the representatives of Argentina, Egypt, Trinidad and Tobago, Turkey and the former Yugoslavia and the complainants and gave the parties directly concerned the opportunity to make known their views in writing and to request a hearing.

(4) The Commission sought and verified all information it deemed to be necessary for the purpose of a preliminary determination and carried out investigations at the premises of the following companies :

Community producers :

- Saarstahl AG, Völklingen, Germany
- Thyssen Stahl AG, Duisburg, Germany
- Moselstahlwerk GmbH & Co. KG, Trier, Germany
- Hamburger Stahlwerke GmbH, Hamburg, Germany
- Unimetal (Usinor Sacilor), Paris and Amnéville, France

- (5) On 10 July 1992 the complainant formally withdrew the complaint with regard to imports of the products concerned from Argentina, Egypt,

Trinidad and Tobago, Turkey and the former Yugoslavia due to a change of the circumstances that led to the lodging of the complaint. The Commission considers that, under the particular circumstances, there is no reason to continue the investigation with regard to these imports.
